Annual Competition Section conference

Date: Wednesday 13 May 2015

Venue: The Law Society, London

Overview

Presented by leading practitioners, the Annual Competition Section conference will provide you with the most up to date coverage of all the major issues and developments in the world of competition law.

It also provides excellent value for money and an opportunity to network with experienced practitioners, clients, government officials, regulators and other members of the competition law community in a relaxing atmosphere throughout the day. This unique event is the only one day competition law conference designed entirely by competition law specialists for competition law specialists. The conference is structured as a series of engaging panel sessions, each focusing on a specific area of competition law enforcement and chaired by a recognised expert in the field.

Why attend?

Engaging panel sessions covering recent developments in:

- Merger control
- State aid
- Concurrency
- Competition litigation
- Antitrust enforcement.

Who should attend

The conference is intended for all solicitors, barristers, regulators, economists and policy makers with an interest in competition law and anti-trust issues.
